

---

trytonaccount_payment_clearing* Documentation Release latest

Nov 02, 2020

---

Contents

---

The `account_payment_clearing` module allows to generate account move when a payment is succeeded between the receivable/payable account to a clearing account defined on the payment journal.

The clearing account will be used for statement lines which are linked to such payment.

If a delay is configured on journal for posting, a scheduled task will post automatically clearing moves after this delay.