The Production Split module adds on the production a wizard that allows to split it. The production is split into productions of Quantity. If Count is set, it will be split only this number of times. On occasion there can be a production with the remaining quantity.