The user_role module allows to assign roles to a user instead of groups. A Role is defined by a set of groups. When a role is added to a user, it overrides the existing groups. A role can be added to a user for a period.